HOME SPORTING NOTES

(From an Occasional Correspondent) LONDON, March 4.

As predicted in my previous letter, the Anglo-Scottish dispute is at an end. Scotland has gained its point on the matter of principle, and in future daily allowances to teams on tour will not be permitted, but it received a robust from the International Board for its unconstitutional tactics in cancelling the match, which will now take place on the 20th met. at Richmond, if the ground at Twickenham is not ready in

Very little football was possible last week on account of the heavy fall of snow and it looks if this week there will mone at all. London Hospital best the Harlequine after a splendid game, and if the victors had shown the same form a few days beforehand when opposed to Guy's Hospital, the cup-tie would have had a different result.

Ab sensation has been created in the Lacrosse world, owing to the Oxford optain scratching the game with Cambridge, as a protest against the action of the Blues Committee in refusing to grant half-blues to the 'Varsity representatives. What will be the outcome of this is not known at present, but a plebicite at the Union Society has been suggested as a means of judging the opinion of all the members of the University as to whether Lacroise shall have its reward or not. There is a lot to be said both for and against it.

The London clubs have made their exit from the Association Cup competition. Newcastle United should figure in the final at the Palace.

Racing has been at a standstill for a formight, the inclement weather mak ing the carrying out of programmes impossible. A novel sight was witnessed at Scarborough when a team of horses in training for the Lincolnshire Handicap was led out for exercise on the sands.

The roller skating rink at Olympia closes to-morrow after an enermonally successful geason, which has enriched the prometers in a manner far beyond their first imaginations. Earl's Court will, however, still be

Before closing, on item of interest is that the Prince of Wales intends to be present at the Navy v. Army (officers) Rugby match at Queen's Club this week.

The total which his been discovered in the Philippines is, says the L. and 0. Repress very much alike in the different islands, being of a sup-hituminous chir-Leter. It has the appearance and specific cravity of lignits, but contains so much carbon as to make it more nearly resemble bituminant coal When mined from hels mer the guriace, and from those which Mave been little disturbed since their deposition the coal a apt to be very inferior, having only about 50 per cent of officiency of Amsterial coal; but in egions like the Compostels and Damo fields on the western, end of Batain Island, it is of a decidedly better grade.
The amparent is due tipe so much to compression at colding, of a to to canto he as it is no the iracturing of the coal; so that is more of the distillation takes place and agreed quantity of fixed carbon is

CANTON, March 30. ARREST OF AR EXPECTANT OFFICER. A search for onum smokers, instigated by the Canton Asti-Opium society, resulted in the discovery of three smokers in an old house in Southern Honam. A large quantity of opium was also discovered in the building. The three men were taken to the police station and questioned by the officiall in charge. One of the three said that he was the son of a man who had held a high command in the Chinese army and that he himself was an expectant officer (i.e. an official waiting for definite appoint ment). He also stated that he had just come from his native village on business, In committing the man to prison the pelice official tritely remarked that the culprit was doubly guilty as being an officer, he had a greater knowledge of the law than an ordinary individual.

About 8 p.m. on the 27th inst. a fire broke out in a small matting factory at Ching Hoi. Ins short space of time eleven shops were bumt out and eight persons soriously injured. The unfortunate people were taken to a hospital for treatment. On the same night a wedding was being colebrated in snother part of the city. During the ceremonies fire broke out; the front part of the house was destroyed and the "Fa Kin" (wedding sedan) met with a similar fate. Luckily no one was injured and the fire was soon extinguished.

MANY ARRESTS AT FATSHAN. energetic lately in searching for opium smokers. Within the last few days large of small tablets of wood and are locally 816 known as "wooden licenses." Punish ment, varying from small fines to periods on the delinquents. STREET CLEANING IN CANTON. The accumulation of rubbish and fill on the north west part of the city ha reached such aquantity that it has attracted the attention of the Tartar General. This the necessary steps for the removal of the nuisance without delay. The magistrates order as the effective cleaning of the place will cost at least $2,000. It is rumoured however, that an officer of the Sin Hon Chi has volunteered to defray the expenses.

GREAT PROCESSION IN HONAM Honam was en fête on Tuesday morning. A Fac-simile of the Trade Mark can be The narrow streets were crowded with seen at the Office of the Colonial Secretary people who had come out to witness a great procession held in honour of the opening of a new Temple. There was a fine array of banners and sacrificial dainties while the presence of a large number of pretty little children in gorgeous array lent an added beauty to the scene.

STUDENTS AND MILITARY SERVICE. Instructions have lately been issued students in the various Chinese colleges that no student will be sllowed to join the the shove Company, we shall the army until to has completed his educational pleased to give any information as to rates course. Lately, several students who have only completed a part of their studies joined the Forces, but, when their military ardour had abated somewhat, left the army to re-pursue their studies. This mode of procedure not linding favour with the Military Authorities, the above mentioned instruc. tions have been issued in consequence.

ELLIS KADOORIE SCHOOLS SOCIETY-HONAW On March 31st the students attending Honam College were granted leave until the 23rd day of the 2nd moon in consequence of the approaching, "Ching Ming" The staff of this excellent school has lately been strongthened by the appoint. ment of mother well-qualified and ex-[1223] perienced English master.

The "boom" in recruiting, now in full force reminds us, says the United Services Guzette, that at the and of the eighteenth century the sum of £18 4s and a handsome watch were offered to each recruit to induce him to enlist. Yet it is doubtful if such bribes were as successful as those which were practised by some of the Scottish ladies of the same period. We are told that the beautiful Duches of Gordon, then helping to raise the Gordon Highlanders, "rode to the country fairs in Highland bonnet and regimental jacket. and " gave a kiss to the men she callsted. far more valued than the coin by which it was accompanied."

To please the opium faddists in Holland, the Government protests loudly that it is bent on restricting the consump tion of the drug in Netherlands India. The Jav. Bode shows that, under the of a restriction policy hading offic at hyour- its Had Office. No 1, Open a buildings. MAUAO NOTES

Hall on Thursday last at 2 p.m. for the annual distribution of prizes to the lads and lasses of our Municipal Schools. H.E. he Governor, Sr. Rocadas, presided and among the local notabilities present were the Colonial Secretary, Dr. Mansilba. Cons. P de Athayde and the members of the Leal Senado. There was also a fair gathering of the gentlesex. In his opening speech the President of the Camara, Dr. Luiz Nolasco, after expressing his keen sense of the gracious courtesy which H. E. the Governor had thought fit to extend to the inhabitants of the Colony by coming in person to preside at a function which was the event of the year for our little ones to whom, moreover, his presence and kind concern would not fail to prove a most hopeful stimulus, discoursed at length on the inefficiency in the scope and shortcomings in the standard of the ruling educational system and gave a for valuable hints tending to uplift the intellectual level and vivify the moral stamina of our rising generation, besides fitting them out with up-to-date essentials for coping which the lifework that lies before the majority.

His Excellency the Governor then procended to hand the awards to the successful scholars as the names were called out. after which he addressed the President of the Camara and the assembly. His Excellency warmly welcomed the suggestions he had received and extelled the praiseworthy endeavours of our municipar Fathers in the past on behalf of educational needs. He assured his hearers that he would leave not a stone unturned to see that such reforms were introduced into the present curriculum of the schools as would lead to the improvement of both mind and body. He touched, too, on the advisability of affording the Chinese community all possible facility to become conversant with the Portuguese language, thereby giving them access to borths in the Government and municipal services, to the manifest advantage of the Colony. His Bicellency closed his remarks by reminding his youthful audience that time was when glorious and heroic feats of arms formed a nation's most treasured appanage. but that in the present day world the onward frend of science held paramount away and enjoined on them to hold nothing mearer to their hearts than moral progress and intellectual achievements.

At the close of the proceedings a select little party adjourned to the presidential. unctum were t asts were heartily exchanged, while the regimental band enlivened the little function with a choice potpourri. Close on 4.30 p.m. it struck. up the National Anthem as H. E. the Covernor left the Hall and the crewd dispersed.

Mr Chu Yu Chi, the well-known millionsire Director of the China Merchants S. N. Co. is with us again on one of his periodic visits to his birthplace. A couple of days ogo he entertained His Excellency the Governor and Senhors Rocades to Junch at his country seat on the Passaleas territory. Among the guests present were Captain and Madame Diogo de Sa, Commander, and Madamo A. J. Basto, Dr. Mansilba, Cons. P. de Atlayde and Mr Hegeland, the Commissioner of Customs. The party returned to town at 6.30 p.m. after a delightful afternoon spent in the grounds.

In spite of the conflicting odds which front would-be pioneers in industrial enterprise in Macao, Mr Tong Moc Tong is about to launch in amount of $40,000 on a knitting factory which is to be built and equipped on latest modern lines. He is sole proprietor of the coming concern which he is going to manage personally. The local authorities are said to be striving to remove every possible bar to the success of the intended venture.

Dr Salomon Rainach, Membre L'Institute and Curator of the St. Germai Museum, whose "Apollo" has become the vade mecum of all Art lovers, is shortly t publish with Mr Heinemann a new volume dealing in a similar manner with the re D ligious systems of the world. In writing this volume he has taken a dispassional and aesthetic point of view and has en leavoured to avoid ademonstration of preference for any particular system.

Another development in connection with the Abode of Love took place on 6th March when Bishop Kennion, the Bishop of Bath and Wells, performed the ceremony of unfrocking the Rev. Smyth-Piggott, the p conductor of the abode of Love. Piggoth did not put in an appearance. The ceremony was somble and impressive, and the first of its kind at Wells for a thousand Mrs Mead, a passenger from London HONGKONG to Manile by the P and O. intermediate steamer Nubia, left a pearl necklace valued at 2500 on her washstand for about liaif at bour while she was out of her cabin, shortly before the steamer arrived in Singapore, and it was stolen. The police on March 25 recorered from a pawnshop some very fine posts valued at several hundred dollars which had evidently formed part of a neckless. They were partied for only $3. THE LOST ATLANTIS.

Even since the days of Plato men have puzzled their hea and worried their brains over the legend of the lost Atlantis. Many have been the attempts to unravel the mystery, many the daring guesses at the probable site of the lost country. In every age there have been sceptics who have openly derided the old-world story and declared that a lost Atlantie was but the idle day-dream of an imaginative philosopher mislead by a cunning priest. But these were ever in the minority. Mankind, taken in the mass, has clung to the legend as fondly as it has done to the story of Cinderella Jack and the Beanstalk and other 'nursery-tales'' which have come down to us from the very day-dawn of history, and which we now know have a very solid basis of material or astronomical fact behind them. For many years it was thought the Cape of Verde islands might be the last remaining vestiges of the lost Atlantis, until scientists began to plumb the depths of the Atlantic between them and the nearest mainland, and then the theory was reluctantly abandoned. Other thinkers, more daring, transferred the lost Atlantis to the Indian Ocean while some even located it in Australia But all these theories, it must be admitted, sound very wide of the mark It will be remembered that in the story told by Plato in the "Timeus," Solon, the great lawgiver, while paying a surreptitions visit to the banks of the Nile, entered into conversation with priest of Sois, then the capital of Egypt, and was told that in a bygone age there had been agreat island state in the West which, in an attempt at universal quest, made war on Hellas and Egypt. but was defeated by the Athenians tale-and overwhelmed by the reafor with the yet accomplaints of leaving theory.

we find him writing: "The island was lands and peoples. Our pivilization is surrounding the city was a level plain sheltered from the north."

Acting on these hints a correspondent of The Times proceeds to locate the lost Atlantis in Crete, and the arguments which he marshals in support of his theory seem most plausible. He describes the position of that wonderful the Colony incurred through the compul- ceased it would appear that he was a city, Knossos,—which has been made of sory shutting of the Opium Divans in popurate at Hongkong rather than a There is a net deficit for the year of Noon-Meeting of China & Manila Steam late years to yield up so many of its obedience to the mandates of the good maident for he had the appearance of £926,000. long-buried secrets, more particularly people in England. The Hon. Mr F. H. having recently been on a voyage either by Dr. Evans—and points out that RAMESES III during his famous reign the Colony should quietly pay the bill was called upon to defend his land race, - the race which built Knossosand whom he utterly defeated and destroyed, as the inscriptions on 2.15 p.m. Meeting of His Majesty's temples at Medinet Habu testify to this Colonial Treasurer pointed out in the Justices of Peace at the Magistracy. day. This amililation of the Mincans. says the writer, may have given rise to the legend of Theseus and the Minotaur, the sacking of Knossos becoming jumbled up in men's minds in the course of centuries with the destruction of the fabled labyrinth, while the existence was founded over 10,000 before North Adriatic to Tel-el-Amarna and from Sicily to Syria. Confident in their their cities unfortified, and this neglect of their land defences proved their ruin when they attempted to extend their sway over Egypt. While still in island was sacked and the wonderful wiped out of the memory of man. its place arose legends which grew more fanciful and indistinct as they passed from the men of one civilization to the men of the succeeding cycle When Knossos fell, the Egyptian knowledge of the Mediterranean must have the keeper in their defence of the Colony been very scanty: the voyage to Crete was probably the first that PHARAOH'S fleet ever took out of sight of land. But by the time of Solon the borders of men's knowledge had widened and so when the priest spoke to him of a lost island lying beyond the four pillars of the world, he naturally placed it out in the west beyond the Pillars of Hercules, our modern Gibral tar. But a stronger argument is furnished, says the writer in The Times, living on 3s. a week. "by the strange and persistent tradition of the shallowness of the Atlantic Ocean the invasion play, "An Englishman and the mud banks which marked the place where Atlantis had been. We cannot imagine that the first navigators who sailed west of Gibraltar brought back tales of the shallowness of those seas; on the contrary, they must have been impressed with their depth, vastness and absence of islands But if Atlantis were Crete the explanation is easy for if through bad weather is pratty well known on the China Station, or faulty rackoning a ship were to miss Crete and pass it on the south Squadron. it would soon find itself on the quickends off the Tunisian coast, the Syrtes, which were dreaded even in Roman times. says the parciotic Plan in repeating the by the legend it would be easy to consider that these shials were the remains its sins. Henceforth the place where of the Island Kingdom that had been the island has been was marked only engulphed in the sea by the gods." Now by sandanks and shallows and the configuration of Knosses too, agrees

Lahipe gave it a wide berth. It was on with Props topographical descriptions this famous occasion that the Greek quoted above, while the cult of the bul traveller was told that the wisdom of by the aucient Amoons adds further Hellas was of little section compared confirmation. It is a most inferesting

the lost Atlantia, and in the Timens" having dominion over many other the way to other islands and from these highly developed and as complex as was islands you might pass to the whole of that of Knosos indeed, the dresses the opposite continent which surrounded worn by the ladies of Minosn times, the true ocean." And again: "In this | their ornaments and trinkets, are wonisland there was a great and wonderful fully akin to those worn by the English empire which had rule over the whole women of to-day-and like Knossos island and several others, as well us over we may be depending too greatly upon parts of the continent." Again, we read one arm of defence for our safety, that "the island was very lofty and neglecting as it were the landward apprecipitous on the side of the sea but proaches and thus we may be in similar that the country immediately about and danger of being overwhelmed and our name and institutions turned into the airy fabric of legend and folk-story. History has an uncomfortable habit repeating itself.

COMPENSATION,

Eleven thousand six hundred and thirteen dollars represent the first actual loss to cothes." From the description of the de-May considers the sum so trifling-"a very small thing" he calls it that he argues without troubling the Home authorities a coalition of the Minoan about it at all. We are glad to see that other members of the Finance Committee of the Legislative Council do not entertain the loose, illogical ideas so breezily snunciated by the Colonial Secretary. As the course of the short discussion initiated by himself, the payment of this $11,613 the direct result of the action taken by the Home Government and therefore it follows. in our opinion, that the matter affords an excellent opportunity for ascertaining whether the Home Government really intend to carry out their statract promise to give the Colony compensation for the loss in its revenues of a bull-ring at Knossos explains the incurred through the shutting up of the opium divans. Mr May thinks that the presence of the Minotaur. Knossos, losses will be calculated as from March 1st. according to conservative estimates, 1910, but we do not follow him along that specious line of reasoning. He acknow Conser and in the course of centuries meeting of the Finance Committee representenced to $2 months' imprisonment, at it had extended its infinence from the sents an actual loss to the Colony, therefore the Magistracy to-day, and four hours from a mere business point of view it would stocks. A similar sentence was imposed on when we draw up our bill for presentation ington Street. long supremacy at sea the Minoans left to the British Parliament. The Hon. Mr. Ho Kai is of that opinion too. Another unofficial member, the Hon. Mr E. A. Hewett, is quite right in reminding the Colonial Secretary that the principle moder lying this apparently triffing transaction very important, for the eventual loss to the full vigour Knossos fell, the whole Colony before this sorry opium muddle is F. B. L. BRUTAL MURDER AT

CHINAMAN TERRIBLY MUTILATED.

What appears to be a murder of a most horrible description bas been found have been committed at Aberdeen. Sometime yesterday afternoon the body of a respectably dressed Chinaman was found near the iron bridge and on examination he appears to have been savagely attacked with a rezor, for the body was terribly mutilated, the head being practically severed from the trunk. The abdomen was also ripped open and there were great makes on both hands, giving evidence of a fight of a most desperate character, there being undoubtedly more than one assailant. In addition the features were almost unrecognisable all the head having been battired with great stones, prolably after the throat had been cut.

MEWS TROM THE HOMBLAND

The will of the famous navel architect. Dr Elgar, has been been proved. Its most remarkable provision is the bequest of large sum, which, it is estimated, will ultimately work out at about £32,000, for the furtherance of mayal architecture.

Before Lord Salveyen, in the Court of Session, Edinburgh, on Feb. 24, mention was made of an action for slander which has been brought against Lord Rosebery by his late factor, Mr A. L. Drysdale, of Dalmery, the damages being laid at 10,0001. The cue was adjourned.

A Royal Commission, with Mr Haldane, M. P., as chairman, has been appointed to inquire into the working of the present erganisation of the University of London, and juto other facilities for advanced education existing in London for persons of either sex above secondary school age to consider what provision should exist in the metropolis for university teaching and research: to make recommendations as to the relations which should subsist between the University of London, its incorporated colleges, the Imperial College of Science and Technology, and the various other institutions concerned; and further to recommend as to any changes of constitution and organisation which may appear desirablo.

The Prince of Wales has sent to "General" Booth acheque for fifty guineas as a contribution towards the funds of the Salvation Army, exompanied by a wish for the "General's" restoration to health and for his continued success in his work.

A deputation of newspaper proprietors recently waited upon the Home Secretary in order to press upon the Government the necessity for immediate legislation to stop gambling competitions in newspapers. Mr Gladstone, at the end of a sympathetic reply, promised to draw up a Bill making Tasmanian Ports. it illegal for any newspaper proprietor to charge any entrance see (which term should Dining Saloon. include a coupon) is any competition. He added that the Government would do their utmost to press the Bill through Parlia-

A variety of demands, including the abolition of the House of Lords, were laid before the Prime Minister by a deputation from the Trade Union Congress. Replying as to electoral reform, Mr Asquith favoured the reduction of the qualifying period, the payment by the State or by local funds of the returning officers' expenses, and the holding of elections on one day, but he declined to commit himself on the question of adult suffrage or the payment of members. Nor would be offer a final opinion give grants in aid of trade unions during that Parliament should fix a minimum wage agitate and make out their case.

A serious fire broke out early on Feb 22, at the jute works of Messre J. W. Cook and Co., Limited on the banks of the Thames at Cubitt Town, and fully 20,000 bales of jute and manilla were destroyed. Some thirty five engines, as well as a fire float, were soon in attendance from all parts of London, but when the fire was go under control after two and a half hours work damage estimated at £40,000 had been done.

DISORDERED STOMACHS

SHANGHAI INSUBANCE AGENT CURED OF ACUTE DYSPERSIA BY DR WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

A ing, Biliousness, Headaches, moor appetite, Constipation, a furred tongue? Do you feel nervous and irritable, "too tired for anything," liverish, low-spirited? If so you are suffering from disordered digestion, just as was MrF. X. Gutierrez until Dr Williams' t'ink Pills cured him as they have cured thousands of other sufferers from the same malady in all parts of the World during the past twenty years. Why not profit by his experience?

Mr Gutierrez is an agent of the China Mutual Life Insurance Co., Shanghai. began to suffer severely from Dyspepsia about eighteen months ago," said he, "and was troubled with attacks of acute pain in the stomach. After eating I had an uncomfortable feeling of distention, caused, I holieve, by wind Food of any description by an effort of the will that I could eat at unhealthy-looking. I often had a bad thaste timed for about six months, and during that time I spent a considerable sum of money on different kinds of medicines, only to be convinced, after giving them a fair trial, that they were quite useless to nıy case. At last l was advised to try Dr Williams' Pink Pills for did so. After I lad taken one or two bottles of these Pills noticed a mark-

"I was advised to try more cheerful in Dr Williams' Pink Pills." spirit. So I went on taking Dr Williams' Pink Pills, deriving more bonefit from them day by day, until after I had taken six bottles I was completely cured, and I am plessed to say that I have remained cured to this day. The Dr Williams' Medicine Co. have my permission to publish this statement."

to ture disordered digestion by the use of than before. The only way to permanently cure disorders of the Stomach, Liver, and Bowels is by restoring these organs to a healthy active state; by renewing the atrength they have lost. Dr Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People do this more effectively than any other medicine. During the past twenty years they have cured as is proved by indisputable testimony, thousands of cases of Indignation, Dyspepsia, Liver disorder, Headache, Debility, Nervousness, Rheumatiam, Sciatica, Paralysis, Beri-Beri, Malaria, Ezema and Skin eruptions generally, as well as the after effoots of fevers, dysantery, and chills. Their fame as a remedy for the special silments of women is world vide. Obtainable at most shops where medicine is sold. Dr Williams' Pink Pills can also be had direct from The Dr Williams Medicine Co., 8B Kiukiang Rd, Shanghai at $1.50 per bottle or 6 bottles for $8 Mex. post free.
